ASK ANNIE

Dear Annie,

My brother is making a run to Wyoming to pick up some fireworks for my kids. Can we celebrate the 4th and the 24th of July by shooting them off with our friends at the village?

My kids love all the noise and explosions!!

Pyrotechnic-in-training

1000 Court

Dear Pyrotechnic-in-training,

You can always celebrate in style in the village, but unfortunately, you cannot celebrate with fireworks. Fireworks of ALL types are strictly prohibited on University Student Apartments property. This includes any fireworks purchased in Wyoming, Utah or any other state. If you have to light it, it is not allowed.

Policy 3.7 in the handbook states, "For reasons of safety and noise control, the following items are not allowed, including but not limited to, primers, powder, dynamite caps, firecrackers, fireworks, and pyrotechnics." Please ask your brother to shoot the fireworks off elsewhere! We want everyone to stay safe this summer, so take your family to enjoy the fireworks in established locations around the valley. You can see the list of July opportunities on the front page!

Love,

Annie

RESIDENT COUNCIL CORNER

Resident Council would like to thank all those who made it out to the Year End Bash, it was a great success. We'd like to especially thank the Union Programs Board who volunteered their time as well as Jumptown Inflatables for their wonderful service and great discount. We look forward to seeing you at Movies on the Lawn in late July. Watch your bulletin boards for exact dates and times.

We hope everyone is enjoying their gardens and learning lots about growing plants and hopefully sharing your knowledge with your friends and neighbors. Another great way to get fresh produce this summer is to participate in the Food Co-op. The Community Food Co-op of Utah partners with local farmers to provide us with the freshest produce at the best prices delivered to the WCC through volunteers like you! You can sign up at www.crossroads-u-c.org.

Please be sure to attend Student Apartments' Lagoon Day on July 10th. Discount coupons can be picked up at the Main Office beginning June 29th. These coupons are valid for free entrance passports for the daily entertainment, picnic areas, Pioneer Village and Midway Entry. Ride Passports for 4 year olds to adults will be available for $27.50 (regularly $41.95). Toddler ages three and younger is $21.95. Limit four coupons per apartment.

Have a great Summer! Stay in touch with all Resident Council happenings by checking out our weekly minutes at www.apartments.utah.edu. Email us at rescouncil@usa.utah.edu
